

COLLABORATIVE PROFESSIONALS DIRECTORY

COLLABORATIVE DIVORCE

Collaborative Divorce is a process for the clients to resolve disputes respectfully, while working with trained professionals who are important to all areas of their life. A safe, supportive environment, outside the traditional courtroom setting, is established so clients can openly discuss the issues relating to their situation. Parties and their attorneys agree to use best efforts to resolve all issues relating to the divorce without litigation. Additionally, Collaborative Divorce allows you the benefit of child specialists, financial specialists, divorce coaches, and other professionals, all working together on your team. The team works with both clients to prepare a settlement agreement, which is needed to obtain a Final Judgment of Divorce. This directory contains lists of Mental Health Professionals/ Coaches/Mediators, Financial Professionals, and Attorneys.

Collaborative professionals listed below have met the minimum standards of Collaborative Basic Training, as defined by the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals (IACP). To learn about Collaborative Divorce or to initiate the process, you may contact any of the professionals listed below. For further information on IACP, please visit www.collaborativepractice.com.
